ONE HOPE for VIETNAM

“The only way to learn strong faith is to endure great trials.” George Muller

A testimony of wisdom and courage...

One Tuesday morning, a young boy enters his classroom and quietly sits himself in his assigned seat. The teacher approaches him and asks a question out of the blue, “Why do you believe in Christianity? It’s a killing religion!” The boy seems a bit surprised but courageously and respectfully answers, “Teacher, does that mean all the Christian churches in our country are set up to kill people?” The teacher glares at the boy in disdain and mutters, “If you continue to believe in Christ and lead other students to follow you, I will kick you out of this school permanently!” The young boy who is the loving image of his heavenly Father responds in confidence, “Teacher, if you expel me from this school, I am sure my God would open up another school that is even better than this one for me to attend.” The teacher’s expression darkened in anger and with a threatening look he warned all the students of the severe punishment if they dare to follow the boy’s belief. Young Aron is eleven years old from the H’re tribe, a very hardworking fifth grader. “A child rightly trained may be a world-wide blessings, with an influence reaching onward to eternal years...” George Muller. May we be stirred to cultivate a deep genuine love for Christ and His cause that even when threatened about our faith, we would hide not our true identity. Let us pray that the courage and faith of this young child would remind us daily of who we are in Christ and where we stand with the Most High God this day.

Easter blessings!

These young girls come from a Buddhist background with heavy regard to ancestor worship. Accepting Christ and following His path means defying the family's tradition and forsaking the honor of a child. Yet, they are willing for they have tasted love and recognized truth. We praise Him for five new baptisms this Easter! It is deeply humbling and encouraging to see the young taking a stand for their faith. In a world where chaos and morality decay is climbing, many are still endeavoring to bring the good news to the broken and lost. Some would rather be killed than to renounce the Savior. If there is ever a time to get serious in faith, now is the moment for the hour is near. We will have to stand before the Creator one day and give an account of our deeds. May it be a rewarding scroll, pleasing to the Father as well as to our soul. We have but one future to live, and only one life to give.

“Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows” James 1:17

We give thanks to the Lord for blessing the hard work our H're evangelists with an addition of eleven new believers this past month! “For no word from God will ever fail.” (Luke 1:37) Our H'roi brothers went out as well and the Lord granted them favor upon two households. Their labor resulted in the family members joyfully embracing the Good News! We also praise God for providing the funds to help our H'roi brethren invest in breeding pigs to support the needs of their families. Hence, the brothers can go and minister with a light burden. But the greatest news by far is that the Ancient Books are coming to the H're tribe! They will have the Book and be able to read the Word and multiply! “The grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of our God endures forever.” (Isa 40:8) Indeed HE is mindful of every nation and every tongue! As we continue to receive much from the Lord through your prayers and financial giving, much is expected of us. By grace we're saved; by faith shall we live. Your continuing support goes a long way in helping to establish home groups, disciple the young, restore the lost and broken, feed the orphans and care for those in need. We are committed and willing, regardless of the cost for as long as we can reach the lost! It is our Lord's greatest commandment.
